

Bon Secours Charity Health System

Bon Secours Charity Health System (BSCHS), a member of the Westchester Medical Center Health Network (WMC Health), includes Good Samaritan Hospital in Suffern, NY; Bon Secours Community Hospital in Port Jervis, NY, and St. Anthony Community Hospital in Warwick, NY. The system also provides the services of Good Samaritan Home Care, a certified home health agency; Schervier Pavilion and St. Joseph's Place, long and short term care facilities; and Mount Alverno Center, an assisted living and adult home facility and several off-site medical programs. In addition, the system includes the Bon Secours Medical Group, BSCHS's regional network of more than 120 primary care physicians and specialists from a broad array of medical disciplines.
